

Dear MPV Supporter:

On October 24, 2011 Muslim for Progressive Values (MPV) is hosting a special reception in D.C. with Congressman Keith Ellison of Minnesota as keynote speaker. The success of this event hinges on the support of individuals and organizations who lend their names and financial support to the event. The money we raise will go to funding Literary Zikr, an on-line project which counters radical Islamic thought so abundantly available for young, incorrigible minds.

Most progressive Islamic theology remains inaccessible to the youth and through Literary Zikr, this project adapts scholarly writings into simple middle school English. By providing an alternative to the readily available fundamentalist interpretations that pervade the Internet, Literary Zikr will demonstrate, among other things, that Islamic values are consonant with American values.

By participating as a sponsor, your organization will benefit from exposure through media campaigns and promotional efforts directed toward the supporters of MPV. For a small donation, you'll be able to enjoy excellent exposure to our diverse supporters consisting of interfaith communities, professionals and the most educated segment of our population.

We have several levels of sponsorship and advertising packages, as detailed on the commitment form attached. You can select the level of participation that best meets your needs, and be secure in the knowledge that your sponsorship fee will be used to help MPV fund Literary Zikr.

As this project concerns scholarly works and the youth, we are happy to have Professor John Esposito and Dr. Eboo Patel on our Honorary Host Committee.

In an interview on Fareed Zakaria's program GPS, August 21, 2011, former assistant Deputy Director of National Intelligence John Miller said "when we talk to the people who are stopped in these (terrorist) plots and say what got you started, if it's here on U.S. soil inevitably it was a mouse and a computer screen and a chat or a video from somebody very far away."

Help us counter this menace!

Thank you in advance for your willingness to support the efforts of Muslims for Progressive Values and in helping us make a difference.

Sincerely,
